PRESS RELEASE

December 17th 2018 - For immediate release

YEARLY OVER 100 DANCERS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD COME TO ZURICH TO TAKE PART IN THE ART OF BALLET SUMMER OR WINTER COURSE

Between December 17th and December 22nd 2018, many young ballet dancers will make their way to Zurich, Switzerland to take part in the fourth annual ART of Ballet Course. The course is presented with the support of world renowned choreographer William Forsythe, in partnership with the ZHdK – Zurich University of the Arts, where the course is held.

Founded in 2012, ART of has brought high-level dance courses to over 1500 students all over Europe. Since 2015, the ART of Ballet Course ZURICH has brought exceptional teachers to Zurich to offer young Swiss and international students the best dance education possible.

For the duration of the course, aspiring dancers have the opportunity to work with principal dancers and ballet masters from professional companies in both classical and contemporary repertoire.

The ART of Ballet Course is truly unique, directly linking classical and contemporary work needed for today's professionals. Students will not only receive ballet, repertoire, and pas de deux classes, but will also have the opportunity to learn Forsythe repertoire, Forsythe improvisation, and receive workshops and master classes from today's leading choreographers.

ART of Ballet Course ZURICH 2018 is once again the partner Ballet Summer School of the Prix de Lausanne. The collaboration with this internationally renowned Swiss institution is reflected in ART of teachers, many of whom are current or former jury members of the Prix de Lausanne.

Thanks to ART of, students have become more versatile dancers, and alumni of the course are employed in ballet companies around the world.
